

Corporate Challenge 2009

More photos are on the LRC website and please send us your best shots as well to create a complete picture of the day.

On a perfect rowing day, with calm waters, no wind and brilliant sunshine, our gallant Corporate Crews took to the waters of the Olympic rowing course to do battle for the Industry Cups, LRC Corporate Challenge Plate and LRC Corporate Challenge Cup. Hailed as one of the best Corporate Challenges ever, we saw close racing, photo finishes and a superb improvement in all of our Corporate Crews, many of whom had their "best row ever", cheered on by an enthusiastic crowd of family, friends and business colleagues.

Our community-based club offers a wide range of membership opportunities, from learn-to-rowers to elite athletes and from age 13 upwards! If you've participated in the Corporate Rowing program, you can take our Learn to Row program for free. Learn to Row (for non-Corporate rowers) costs $250 per adult and $125 for school students. See the LRC website for further details on www.lrc.com.au. If you are an experienced rower who'd like to come back to competition and join Leichhardt Rowing Clubs, membership application forms are also on the LRC website. We look forward to seeing you at the Club in the near future or at next year's LRC Corporate Challenge.
